After a while, a dream.. Khoya Khoya Chand Parindey Full Song Lyrics in Hindi, Download.The recent tragic events that have occurred on the Greek island of Lesbos illustrate the gap between European policies to modernize the health systems and the needs of the people in terms of protection against all forms of social exclusion. In recent years, the European Union has prioritized efforts to modernize the health system in the Mediterranean and launched a number of projects and programs to improve health services and meet the basic needs of the population. These interventions have followed a line of differentiated priorities, different EU member states having different needs. On the one hand, we can state that, to date, in some member states, the health system has improved substantially. The Greek health system has been modernized during recent years, in order to respond to the needs of patients and patients' families, as well as the needs of the Greek population as a whole. Greece has succeeded in increasing the coverage of its health services, increasing the number of specialized doctors, institutions and clinics and also in improving access to specialized care. On the other hand, however, in some EU member states, there are fundamental needs that have not yet been met. Countries that have relied, historically, on their tradition, which are the Mediterranean countries, have a need to respond to a growing number of new priorities. The commitment to the citizens of helping to improve the health of the population is a key element of the project "European Neighbourhood", the European Commission's strategy to strengthen the
